| about th Security schools, and Fren the Can | and B, and Question 1 are asked to determine who should complete this questionnaire. Questions 2 to 6 are asked to learn e living arrangements of people living in Canada. This information is used for planning social programs, such as Old Age and the Canada Child Tax Benefit. It is also used by towns and cities to plan a variety of services such as day care centres, police and fire protection. Questions 7, 8 and 9 provide information to determine the need for language services in English and according to the Official Languages Act, and are used to implement programs that protect the rights of Canadians under adian Charter of Rights and Freedoms. Question 10 provides each person with the opportunity to make an informed about what happens to his or her personal census information in 92 years. |

The census has always provided a portrait of our people and the places in which we live. The 2011 Census will continue this tradition.

To be part of this new portrait of Canada, complete the paper questionnaire today. Census information is important for Canadian communities and is vital for planning services such as schools, daycare, police services and fire protection.

By law, every household must complete a census questionnaire. By the same law, your responses will be kept confidential. To ensure confidentiality, put your completed questionnaire in the envelope provided and seal it. Return your sealed envelope in accordance with instructions from your unit or department. Only Statistics Canada staff will open the sealed envelopes.

Your information may be used by Statistics Canada in support of our other surveys or for analysis.
